

Find out the equations of motion for a free particle in a frame of reference that is rotating anticlockwise about the z-axis. The Lagrangian was derived in the class. In the tutorial the students should go to the board, and derive the equation of motion, and, realize for themselves the terms corresponding to the centrifugal and the coriolis forces.